MEMORANDUM FOR: Mr. James S. Lay, Jr.
Executive Secretary
National Security Council

SUBJECT : Nomination of Major [redacted]
for Award of the National Security Medal

25X1

1. The Central Intelligence Agency Honor Awards Board with due consideration of the materials provided as enclosures to your memorandum of 23 July 1956, has concluded that the award of the National Security Medal cannot be made to Major [redacted] USAF.

2. In reviewing this case, the Board found that Major [redacted] services, while of unquestioned value, cannot be regarded as exceptional or important to the degree that is called for in granting this award. The Assistant Chief of Staff, Intelligence, USAF, provided additional material of a highly secret nature for the consideration of the Board. This, too, failed to establish that [redacted] services met the standards for award of the National Security Medal.

3. There is enclosed a draft of a letter which you may wish to use in replying to the Department of Defense.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Assistant Secretary of Defense
Manpower, Personnel and Reserve

SUBJECT: Recommendation for Award of the National Security Medal to Major [] USAF

I have been notified by the Director of Central Intelligence that the CIA Honor Awards Board is unable to award the National Security Medal to [] as recommended in your memorandum of 23 July 1956. I am advised that this Board has examined all supporting material submitted, as well as highly secret information subsequently furnished by the Assistant Chief of Staff, Intelligence, USAF, and finds that [] services, while of unquestioned value, do not meet the standards established for award of the National Security Medal.
